EXCITING CONTEST IN ILLINOIS

General Grant again a Very Sick Man—Derby Day at the Louisville Races—Interesting Railroad News, Etc.

[illegible]

WASHINGTON, May 14.—A monthly statistical publication of the agricultural department for May, which will be issued within two or three days, contains a comprehensive statement of the wages paid farm laborers in all parts of the country, based upon what Mr. Dodge, statistician of the department, believes to be entirely trustworthy data. [illegible] California [illegible] The amount of labor seeking employment in [illegible] at the present time is unusually large [illegible] in many localities in almost every part of the country in which there is more or less complaint of scarcity. The report closes with a practical suggestion that in manufacturing towns and cities offices be opened either by labor unions or by benevolent citizens, through which communication may be opened between unemployed city workmen and farmers needing help, so that the reputable and worthy [illegible] laborer may have means of making known his true character instead of starting on foot at the venture of being suspected a professional tramp.

[illegible]

WASHINGTON, May 14.—An army delegation consisting of Surgeon General Murray, [illegible] Assistant Adjutant General O. D. Greene, General H. J. Hunt, General Ayres and Lieutenant Colonel Hudson called upon the president to-day and urged the retention of Miss [illegible], daughter of General [illegible], as postmistress at Charlottesville.

COX IN DEMAND.

A Delegation Urges Cleveland to keep him at Home—The Request Denied.

WASHINGTON, May 14.—A delegation of the constituency of Congressman Cox of New York called on President Cleveland to-day. After the ceremony of introduction Judge McCarthy addressed the president on behalf of the delegation, stating the purpose of their visit to Washington. They had seen Mr. Cox and urged him in behalf of all classes of people in his district to decline the appointment as minister to Turkey and represent them in congress. They had not prevailed and now came to ask the president to advise Mr. Cox to decline. With this Judge McCarthy handed the president an engrossed copy of resolutions.

The president said the proposition seemed a singular one to make to him. He had found a good man such a one as he wanted to help run the administration, and here came his friends to say he was a good man and yet to ask him (the president) to let him go. He was afraid the proposition would be a sort of a boomerang for those who made it.

Judge McCarthy—"We feel, Mr. President, knowing him as we do."

The president—"It won't do. I mean to have the lion's share of good things for the administration and the more resolutions you pass calling Mr. Cox a good man, the more I shall hold on to him."

Something was said by a delegate about the difficulty of filling Mr. Cox's place.

"You have," said the president, "a district full of good men. Send us along a good man. I won't interfere in your district, but I want him and you won't get me to back out. Your mission is unsuccessful."

Mr. Cox felt that he had a word to say. He had served sixteen years, and had formed a host of warm attachments. All these gentlemen knew that this request came from no suggestion of his.

The president—"This is very complimentary to you and me too. I feel that I have been building perhaps better than I knew."

A delegate said it would be very gratifying to his constituents to have Mr. Cox remain. It would be very hard to fill his place.

Mr. Cox said he used to be in a great hurry to get up to the house promptly, but some one had told him the government could run without him, and he had found it so. The president had made this appointment with so much kindness that he felt himself bound to go where sent. They could always find a good democrat in the district and could always elect him. After some further talk and a round of handshaking the delegation withdrew.

EASTERN NEWS ITEMS.

HORRIBLE ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE.

COLUMBUS, O., May 14.—[Special.]—David Wilson, a colored prisoner serving a twenty years sentence for assault on a woman, made a horrible attempt at self-destruction in Patton's foundry at the penitentiary. Wilson has been moody and depressed of late. He left his work without permission and went to the deputy warden's office. Being asked what he wanted he replied: "I want a new head. I am tired of the one I have on my shoulders and want another." He was taken back to the foundry and set to work again. He worked steadily until 4:30 P. M., at which time the molten iron leaves the furnace. A few minutes after it began to run Wilson darted forward and thrust his head up to his ears into a ladle of molten iron. When the wretched man was removed to the hospital it was found that the flesh of his head down to his ears and eyes was completely cooked, there being not a single hair left. He was conscious during the examination and said he meditated it long before making the attempt. The man is still alive, but death is momentarily expected.

IMPORTANT DECISION AGAINST EDISON.

NEW YORK, May 14.—[Special.]—The Tribune says: A patent contest of great importance and magnitude was concluded on Tuesday by the granting of letters of patent to the Consolidated Electric Company on an invention of William E. Sawyer and Albion Mann. The controversy was between Thomas A. Edison on one side and Sawyer & Mann on the other. Letters patent cover it is claimed all incandescent electric lamps. The contest has been carried on from January, 1880, to the present time. The officers of the successful company claim that the use of any incandescent electric lamp without their authority in this country will be an infringement on their patent. The final findings of the commissioner of patents hold that the Sawyer invention was perfected in March, 1878, and that of Edison not until October, 1879. The company that now holds the patent is assignee of the original inventors.

GREAT EXCITEMENT AT SPRINGFIELD.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 14.—On the second ballot Judge Tree received 101, and as Senator Ruger voted for John A. Logan and it was within one of electing Judge Tree, there was great excitement in the house when he announced his vote.

After roll call on the second ballot, Representative Fuller got up and announced that a man named Dumphrey of Chicago was in the house and attempted to bribe Senator Ruger to vote for Logan. It created a sensation, and it was nearly an hour before any business was transacted. The third ballot resulted: Tree, 100; Morrison, 1.

At 10:0 the joint assembly took a recess till 9:30 A. M. to-morrow. This is done to prevent Weaver being sworn in.

About 10:30 after the democrats had [illegible] Weaver, the new member from the thirty-fourth district, was taken into the house and sworn in by Judge Gross. The fight now will be to have him recognized by the chair. This will come in the morning.

GENERAL GRANT'S CONDITION.

NEW YORK, May 14.—Yesterday was acknowledged to be a bad day for General Grant. He suffered with his throat and could only speak with difficulty. The afternoon brought him no relief, even though it brought Dr. Douglas, and it was not until early this morning that he fell into a slumber, superinduced by an extra quantity of morphine. This morning he awoke feeling a little easier, but not at all improved in his general condition. Dr. Douglas' statements imply that the general is not improving, as hitherto. The weather was a very depressing influence.

Gen. Grant was a little easier this evening. Fred Grant and Dr. Douglas state that he is really a very sick man.

[illegible] COAST DEFENSES.

NEW YORK, May 14.—At a meeting of the military service institute of the United States at Governor's Island to-day, Lieutenant Eugene Griffin of the engineers corps, U. S. A., read a paper on "Our Sea Coast Defenses," wherein he showed that the coasts of this government were almost without protection and urged the necessity for prompt action by the federal powers in this respect. Senator J. N. Dolph of Oregon, chairman of the senate committee on Sea Coast Defenses, was present and promised to aid all legitimate schemes in congress whereby the almost protection could be afforded United States coasts and harbors.

AN UNSATISFACTORY APPOINTMENT.

NEW YORK, May 14.—[Special.]—The World says: The appointment of Dufais as consul to Havre does not give satisfaction to French residents. He is of German parentage. The Courier des Etats Unis, official organ of French residents, is opposed to the appointment. "There are many Americans," said the editor yesterday, "who would please our countrymen better. [illegible] even an Irishman would be preferred. It is very queer to send a German to France when there are so many American citizens who could fill the position."

ONE HUNDRED PERSONS POISONED.

ATLANTA, May 14.—About 100 persons were to-day poisoned at a picnic at Tallulah falls, through a chemical change made in ice cream freezers. All are recovering.

ENDICOTT AT CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, May 14.—Secretary Endicott of the war department arrived here to-day on a tour of inspection. He left to-night for Fort Leavenworth and will also visit Fort Snelling and the arsenal at Rock Island, Illinois. Regarding the mooted transfer of the Indians to the war department, he [illegible] was not prepared to speak definitely [illegible] think he [illegible] advantage [illegible] the [illegible] economy.

CRIMINAL CALENDAR.

MURDEROUS ENCOUNTER IN NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, May 14.—About 8:30 to-night an altercation occurred between Larry O'Brien, a well known broker and politician, and George Trueman, a sporting character belonging to Chicago. The former was probably fatally stabbed, and the latter was shot twice. The affray was the outcome of a quarrel. To-night O'Brien met Trueman on the corner of Broadway and Twenty-seventh street and accused him of attempted blackmail. The remark enraged Trueman, who gave utterance to some strong language. His remarks so exasperated O'Brien that he lifted his cane and struck the other man a heavy blow on the head. Without warning Trueman drew a murderous looking Bowie knife and plunged it into his opponent's abdomen, inflicting a gash eight inches long. Policemen immediately arrested Trueman, and while in the custody of an officer a pistol shot was heard, and a bullet from O'Brien's revolver lodged in the prisoner's back. He broke away from the officer and a second bullet from the same source lodged in Trueman's left shoulder.

Both men were taken to the Twenty-ninth precinct police station and thence removed to the New York hospital. The excitement in the locality was intense.

The cause of the quarrel is said to be an attempt on the part of Trueman to blackmail a Wall street friend of O'Brien. The friend is supposed to be Mr. Kelly of the firm of Kelly & Bliss, bookmakers. A charge of felonious assault was made against both men at the station house. The knife used has a blade a foot long, and an inch and a quarter wide. O'Brien declined to take an anesthetic while his wound was being sewed up, and both men indulged in recriminations while their wounds were being dressed in the same ward in the hospital. To-night both men were resting quietly, but the result of the injuries is likely to be fatal in each case.

MURDERER MAXWELL'S CLAIM.

NEW YORK, May 14.—A special from Philadelphia says: In New York, Walter Lennox Maxwell, who was arrested in New Zealand for the murder of Preller in St. Louis, made the statement that he was a brother of Lord Herries, and several times spoke of his aristocratic connections. In February last Bernard C. Maxwell, second brother of Lord Herries, was in Philadelphia on business, and sailed for Europe in March, and has since been heard from in London. It is a queer coincidence that he has a brother, Walter Lennox Maxwell, who came here from Australia, and settled for awhile on a ranch in Colorado, though nothing has been heard of him for some time. Some points of resemblance and coincidences have given rise to a belief that the companion of the murdered man who is now under arrest is either the new Lord Herries' brother or assumed his name purposely to mislead.

RAILROAD NOTES.

THE CHICAGO CONFERENCE.

CHICAGO, May 14.—At the afternoon session of the eastern trunk line meeting it was decided to send a committee to New York to confer as to the general policy and territory of this pool. An impression seems to prevail here that the projected central traffic association is practically dead, as it can not be made effective till differences among Chicago roads and between the West Shore and New York Central are adjusted. Subsequently general passenger agents of the trunk line pool met and indulged in a mutual recrimination on the subject of rate cutting. The representative of the Chicago and Atlantic declined to compete on equal terms with other roads, whereupon representatives of the latter withdrew to another room and resolved to maintain rates, regardless of any action which the Chicago and Atlantic might take.

THE PROPOSED O. R. & N. LEASE.

BOSTON, May 14.—Messrs. Oakes, Harris and Stackpole, of the Northern Pacific, met to-day with Messrs. Ames, Atkins and Hedekey of the Union Pacific system, and a long conference was held upon the Oregon Railway and Navigation matter. No settlement was reached however. It is admitted that a hitch exists in the negotiations, but where it is could not be learned. It is denied that any compromise on 6½ per cent has ever been talked of. It is hoped to overcome the hitch before long and arrive at an agreement. The next meeting will be held in New York on Tuesday or Wednesday, the date to be fixed by the Northern Pacific people, and it is expected matters will be settled then.

EARNINGS OF WESTERN ROADS.

NEW YORK, May 14.—Following is a statement for February of railroads mentioned: Southern Pacific of New Mexico—Gross earnings $56,710; operating expenses $44,080; net earnings $12,630. Southern Pacific of Arizona—Gross earnings $137,[illegible]; operating expenses $90,045; net earnings $[illegible] Southern Pacific of California—Gross earnings $247,[illegible]; operating expenses $131,[illegible]; net earnings $115,[illegible]. Southern Pacific of California, northern division—Gross earnings $8[illegible]; operating expenses $54,024; net earnings $[illegible]

France and Germany.

The prospect of an Anglo-Russian war causes great uneasiness here. The French are much too shrewd to miss the European significance of the conflict that threatens to take place in Asia. When England and Russia have their teeth well fastened in each other the position of France in Europe will be extremely critical. It is possible, though not probable, that Germany will seek a pretext for hastening what is considered on both sides of the Rhine to be inevitable, viz., a reopening of the Franco-German quarrel, but it is probable that Germany will consider the moment when England and Russia are virtually removed from the continental chessboard very opportune for putting into execution her long cherished ambition of including Holland in her empire. Such a step would be made in open defiance of France, and it would be one that the French would be compelled to resent at all risks. It is not doubted here that it is in the power of Prince Bismarck to prevent war breaking out between England and Russia. That he seemingly preferred to let matters take their course is regarded as a most sinister omen.—Paris Letter.

Mugwump Workers.

New York World.

Suppose the mugwumps should succeed in their efforts to destroy the democratic organization, and to build up a party of their own, would it not seem strange if the new party should turn its back on Mr. Curtis, Carl Schurz, Horace White, the Evening Post and the Boston Herald, because they had been active mugwump "party workers?"

Railroad News and Rumor from San Francisco.

MRS. SHARON AGAIN TO THE FRONT

Further Particulars of the Idaho Trouble—Notes from Salt Lake—The Fishermen's Strike at Astoria, Etc.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.—[Special.]—A move has been effected here by railroad agents which promises to put a end to all rate cutting on passenger traffic in the east. This was the consolidation of the [illegible] passenger association [illegible] association. The following officers were elected: D. W. Hitchcock, president; [illegible] Frosby, vice president; Sheldon [illegible] secretary. The new association embraces all lines [illegible] Chicago and St. Louis [illegible] It is [illegible] that [illegible] organization is the most important ever effected by passenger agents in this city.

Mr. Gannon, Sawyer, Jordan and Mr. Goodman left for Chicago yesterday to attend a meeting of the passenger agents of the Transcontinental Association, which will begin its sessions there on the 18th inst. A prominent railroad man said yesterday that the most important question which would come before the association would be the reduction of first class fare from New York and an increase in third class rates. First class fare from New York to this city is $[illegible] with $[illegible] making the whole fare $1[illegible]. Third class fare from New York, including sleeper from the Missouri river, is $70, or less than half of the first class rate. It has been found that this great difference has decided most travelers of limited means to choose the latter. Roads have felt the difference seriously and have at last decided to resort to some means to induce people to prefer the first class trip. They have two plans open to them. The idea of sleepers for third class trains or to lower first class fares and at the same time increase third class rates. This latter plan is more favorably received by railroad men. A railroad man said he thought the result of the meeting at Chicago would be to reduce first class fare to $100 from New York to this city and increase third class fare to $46.

SARAH ALTHEA'S [illegible] AFFIDAVITS.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.—[Special.]—The Chronicle to-morrow will publish the following: On Monday next about sixty affidavits will be filed in Judge Sullivan's court (case missed) for the plaintiff in the Sharon divorce case. They are intended to refute the Nowalsky depositions, which brought in, as to an [illegible] Sarah Althea's virtue while living at the Baldwin and Grand hotels prior to 1880, when her connection with William Sharon began. "I have not found it necessary," said Sarah Althea yesterday, "to get affidavits from bell boys and servants. Those which I have are all from respectable and well known people. If you will not publish their names I will let you see the affidavits." She did so. Nearly all of them are brief, and most of them are made by persons who resided at the hotels mentioned when she did. They cover a period of thirteen years of her life previous to 1880. Affiants testify that they never heard a word against her virtue and chastity until the Sharon affair; that her companions were respectable ladies, and in several cases wives of deponents, and that no men visited her rooms at suspicious hours.

AN EXTRA SESSION WANTED.

[Special.]—It is said here that the irrigationists have held meetings in this city, and that they have secured the signatures of a majority of members of each branch of the legislature to petition for an extra session, together with a pledge not to prolong its duration over fifteen days. Legislation will be confined to irrigation matters.

GRASSHOPPERS.

[Special.]—Reports of depredations of grasshoppers in this state are showing more serious results each day. They attack and destroy every growing thing. Grapes, grain and hops in the Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys have thus far been the principal sufferers.

SHIPPING INTELLIGENCE.

IDAHO.

FURTHER PARTICULARS OF THE PARIS AFFAIR.

SALT LAKE, May 14.—A special dispatch to the Tribune, dated Blackfoot, Idaho, May 13th, says: Last Saturday three deputies visited Paris to arrest eight persons charged with illegal cohabitation. He found an assemblage at the meeting house. The chief Mormons, the ones wanted, being inside. The deputies attempted to enter but were refused admission, under claim that the meeting was a private one. The doors were locked and guarded inside and out. The deputies were bantered to go in, and were given to understand that they would be severely dealt with if they attempted to do so. Seeing no chance to arrest the men, the crowd was so determined, the deputies left, followed by a part of the crowd. The deputies went out of town until the crowd dispersed. That afternoon the deputies arrested Sam Humphrey, out of town, also Simpson, and took them to Montpelier. Sunday they brought the prisoners to Blackfoot after an attempt had been made at Montpelier to rescue them from the officers. The deputies telegraphed to Marshal Dubois on Sunday and he took a special train to Montpelier, arriving there Monday morning. He called at the places of all the county officers, but none were there. He searched two or three houses, but found no one that was wanted. At least 150 Mormons were on the street, but no resistance was offered. Dubois had warrants for nearly all officers who are polygamists, and they will be changed under the new laws of the territory.

The dispatch also states: To-day John D. Jones of Malad pleaded guilty to unlawful cohabitation and was fined $300 and costs. About fifteen similar cases are on the docket and more are to come.

NOTES FROM SALT LAKE.

SALT LAKE, May 14.—Bullion receipts in this city for the week were $87,514.04.

The United States attorney, United States commissioner McKay and deputy marshals are in Ogden to-day. James Taylor, deputy city recorder of Ogden, was arrested for unlawful cohabitation and had a hearing at 2 P. M. before the commissioner. Two witnesses were examined, and then his second wife let the secret out, exposing Taylor, who was held in $1500 bonds to await the action of the grand jury.

The church organ to-night bewails the hardness of the heart of President Cleveland in not preventing, to stop enforcement of the law, and send a commission for investigation. It urges continued appeals to the authorities of the nation against the oppression of tyrants and closes: "Should a deaf ear be turned by them to the entreaties of an innocent, maltreated people, the Lord of Hosts will listen to the cry of the oppressed and make an adjustment that will make the ears of millions tingle. In the meantime the saints must do the best they can under the circumstances, standing firm in their integrity and patiently awaiting developments."

THE FISHERMEN'S TROUBLES.

ASTORIA, May 14.—[Special.]—The seven fishermen arrested for interfering with other fishermen desirous of quietly pursuing their occupation were examined in a justice court to-day. Justice Good [illegible] has reserved his decision till to-morrow morning. The prisoners were ably defended by Fulton, but the opinion is they will be bound over to appear before the grand jury. There was much excitement last evening, but Sheriff Ross was equal to the emergency and happily the majesty of the law was maintained in spite of much riotous conduct and talk by a mob with no recognized leader.

The fishermen are still on a strike, and held a meeting this evening, open to fishermen only, and consequently their deliberations are not yet made known.

Philadelphia Dispatch to the New York World.

Vice President Hendricks, who arrived here to-night, said that he could hold out no hope to such democrats of the country as are anxious for a general and rapid change in the civil service of the country. The situation, he said, in which the democratic party finds itself with the advent of this administration is exceptional, and the expectations of reward for party services that might have been realized four or eight years ago cannot be gratified now.

Slightly Sarcastic

New York Herald

Lord Randolph Churchill talks of moving a vote of censure on Mr. Gladstone for poltroonery in the maintenance of the Indian empire. This seems a little harsh. Mr. Gladstone, like all scholars, has a great interest in India, and we should not be surprised if he devoted his declining years to annotating the Sanskrit legends and the "Tales of a Parrot." When Russia occupies the Punjaub; when the Cossacks pitch their tents in the gardens of the Taj at Agra; when Komaroff's shells are flying over the temples of Benares, when the czar holds his first durbar at Calcutta, Mr. Gladstone, we hope, will be occupying a chair of Oriental language at Oxford, deciphering the Rig Veda and delivering lectures on the poetry of Hafiz. The Tories should not be angry with so amiable and so distinguished a philologist.

He had over $25,000 insurance on his life, and the theory was advanced by interested insurance companies that he had committed suicide. The confession of Jansen was corroborated Friday by receipt of the stolen ring.

FOREIGN DISPATCHES

The Afghan Boundary Dispute far from Settled.

FRESH COMPLICATIONS ARISE.

Change of United States Ministers at Paris—Riel's Followers now Surrendering to the Canadian Forces at the Front.

LONDON, May 14.—Granville is communicating with Russia in regard to keeping order on the new Russian-Afghan frontier.

It is reported that M. Degiers has asked whether England will accept the responsibility for the acts of frontier tribes nominally under control of the ameer. It is the intention of M. Degiers to leave Russia freedom to extend the frontier on the first excuse of tribal disorders.

A NEW DIFFICULTY ARISES.

LONDON, May 14.—The London Standard says it is rumored that the Russian reply raises a difficulty in regard to the basis of delimitation. It is expected that a commission of officers will be appointed to examine the northwest frontier of India with a view of taking into consideration measures of defense.

THE AFGHANS WANT INDEMNITY.

LONDON, May 14.—A dispatch from Tirpul to the Daily Telegraph says that the people of Afghanistan expect that England will avenge the defeat of the Afghans by the Russians, or indemnify the ameer for his losses. The dispatch also says Youlchar Sarik is the head man and represents Russian rule in Penjdeh.

LONDON STOCK BOARD.

AN AFGHAN PETITION.

LONDON, May 14.—Afghan merchants residing at Merv have petitioned Russia to allow an Afghan agency there.

NEGOTIATIONS PROCEEDING SATISFACTORILY.

LONDON, May 14.—Negotiations which have been resumed in London between Russia and England respecting the Afghan question are making satisfactory progress. Some further explanations are still necessary from both sides, before the ratification of the general agreement already reached can be secured, but it is not believed this will delay the final adjustment. M. Lessar, chief of the Russian commission of the Afghanistan frontier question, expects any moment to be instructed to proceed forthwith to Asia for the work of delimiting the frontier.

"SOMETHING WRONG."

[Special.]—The Times this morning declares that most of all parties are agreed in thinking "something is wrong." In other words, that a peaceable arrangement with Russia is even now not certain. This warning by the Times probably signifies that a hint has got out of the contents of the dispatches brought here by Condee Stephen, and that they charge the Russians with aggression and with perversion of letters and telegrams of correspondents of daily papers. The especially inspired Daily News strongly asserts this.

A PERMANENT BOUNDARY DESIRED.

VIENNA, May 14.—A dispatch from St. Petersburg to the Political Correspondence says: "The basis of the Anglo-Russian agreement appears to consist in the abolition of the neutral zone in favor of a direct boundary between Russia and Afghanistan. Russian government circles think this will secure a lasting peace, the neutral zone having been a constant cause of discussion.

THE NEW FRONTIER LINE.

SIMLA, India, May 14.—The new Afghan frontier line starts at a point north of Zulfikar, and runs thence eastward to Chaman-i-Baidh. From the latter place the line extends northward, down the Kushk river to Gauzit Khan, and proceeds thence eastward and south to Penjdeh, and from there to Khoja Saleh.

THE RUSSIANS IN AFGHANISTAN.

TEHERAN, May 14.—Colonel Alikhanoff, who commanded the Russians in their attack on Penjdeh, remains at Merv with 2000 troops. The Russians have two battalions of infantry and 800 cavalry with two batteries at Sarakhs. They have strong outposts at Pul-i-Khartum and Zulfigar.

A RUSSIAN MINISTER ALARMED.

HONG KONG, May 14.—The Russian minister at Pekin is much concerned over the English occupation of Quelpaart. Vladivostock is closed to all foreign vessels unless brought in by Russian pilots.

CANADA.

LATEST FROM THE FRONT.

WINNIPEG, May 14.—Latest news from the front is contained in the following dispatch received this afternoon by Commissioner Wrigley: "The Northcote is safe, but ran through a terrible fire at Batouche from both banks of the river, and the rebels tried to capture her by lowering the ferry cable, but were not quick enough, but carried away the smokestack. Three were wounded, but slightly, the boat being barricaded with beef boxes and hay and oats. There are plenty of provisions and fodder at the front, also ammunition, and the situation looks brighter. We expect that this defeat will wind up the business. The rebels are delivering themselves up. We will insist upon Riel being hanged."

It is reported that Riel has gone down the river, but this is not much credited in Winnipeg, as all good judges say he would thereby place himself in the way of being captured. As for rebels who are surrendering, it is not likely anything further will be done with them. Many of them were no doubt misled by Riel and Dumont, and others were coerced into joining the rebels."

WAGON TRAIN CAPTURED.

WINNIPEG, May 14.—Papers here have received intelligence of an authentic nature, that a team with provisions, which left Swift Current a week ago, was attacked by Poundmaker and his Indians, and captured after a fight in which several were wounded and two killed. Thirty-one teams and twenty-one teamsters were captured, and ten teamsters escaped. The train was within thirteen miles of Battleford.

ENGLAND.

A NEW SCHEME OF ENGLAND'S.

LONDON, May 14.—Negotiations are proceeding with Turkey for the latter's occupation of Suakem and the Soudan on the following basis: The porte engages to assist in suppressing the slave trade and in developing external commercial relations. Besides formal proposals made through Fehmi Pasha, if the porte accepts, an English company will obtain the option of securing a concession to construct a railway to Berber, and will receive other trading rights. Granville is also negotiating with the Italian government concerning an alternative scheme for occupation of the Red Sea littoral in event of a failure to come to an agreement with the porte. The Reform and Rassegna of Rome, and other liberal Italian papers, are opposed to Italian occupancy of Egypt unless England promises armed support in event of Italy being involved in a European quarrel. The Italian military journal Esercito approves the occupation of Egypt by Italy.

ACCIDENT TO A STEAMER.

LONDON, May 14.—The steamer Lessing, from New York April 30 for Hamburg, which arrived off Scilly to-day, broke her aft main shaft on the 7th inst., and was delayed sixty six hours in repairing.

FRANCE.

THE CHANGE OF UNITED STATES MINISTERS.

PARIS, May 14.—Mr. Morton, retiring United States minister, to-day presented his letters of recall to President Grevy, and then lunched with the president. Afterward Mr. McLean presented his credentials to Grevy and delivered an address, to which M. Grevy replied, welcoming the new minister and thanking him for the sentiment expressed in his address. M. Grevy assured Mr. McLean that he would always find in France the most sympathetic co-operation in everything calculated to promote the welfare of the American republic.

PORTLAND, FRIDAY, MAY 15, 1885

THE FISHERMEN'S STRIKE

The strike of fishermen on the lower Columbia river is, in its main features, an effort to accomplish artificially what if left alone will soon accomplish itself. If there is only enough fish for half the boats now engaged, the fleet will soon be reduced to that number. There is no need of arbitration with employers in this matter. Either let competition work its own reform or let the fishermen draw lots among themselves as to who shall pull out. The result will be the same in any event, for if their demands are met by the cannerymen, half of them will be dismissed.

As to the price of fish, 50 cents in the present state of the salmon market is quite enough. It is a question if the cannerymen can come out even on the season's work at that rate, and rather than pay more they would do better to shut down their establishments. This is the whole truth in the matter. If the fishermen cannot operate with profit at a rate which the cannerymen can afford to pay, they ought to quit. But the truth is that 50 cents per fish affords excellent wages, take the season through. During the early weeks it is poor pay, but later when the boats come in full, it is big pay and we are told that the average return for the season's work is more than $125 per month for each man engaged. No other kind of labor pays so well. Owing to the hardship and danger of this work, it ought certainly to pay something more than ordinary labor, but it is too much to expect it to yield during the brief fishing season wages equal to a whole year's work in other pursuits. But be this as it may, cannerymen cannot afford to can fish in the face of a dull market, which cost more than fifty cents each.

The fishermen are right in their warfare against traps and wheels. These cruel devices ought to be prohibited by law, but as they are not, the cannerymen, who certainly are interested in protecting the salmon from extermination, ought to league against them. A cheap supply of fish this season or next is a temporary gain which must be dearly paid for in a future impoverished river. The fishermen are quite right in protesting against these murderous machines and if they would present their grievances to the legislatures of this state and Washington territory, we believe they could have this outrageous system of fish-killing permanently abolished.

CANADIAN PACIFIC MANAGEMENT

Mr A. Onderdonk, contractor for the western division of the Canadian Pacific railroad is operating the incompleted part of the line east from Port Moody in a way which greatly aggrieves the people of the interior districts. It appears from the statements of the interior newspapers that he has established the highest rates the traffic will stand and then forces patronage by the well-known "soulless" methods of railroad management. The road is a government concern, built for the people and to promote the advancement of the country, and it is claimed that Mr. Onderdonk's management subverts these purposes and makes the road a curse instead of a blessing. There is an appearance of truth and something more than an appearance of indignation, in the statements of the Kamloops Sentinel, the Victoria Times and the British Columbian. Closing a long review of what is called outrages, the latter journal says: "We repeat what has already been stated, that Mr Onderdonk could not thus impose upon the people of this country if the federal government did its duty. It is a crying shame that a government whose first aim ought to be the protection of the rights and liberties of its citizens should continue to furnish the machinery for the greatest system of monopoly and extortion under which this province ever suffered."

Mr Onderdonk's management of the road is under his contract which gives him the right to operate it as he extends it. His division will be completed before a great while and then his authority as operating manager will cease.

The British postal telegraph is to be rendered still more available for popular use by a new system of charges to go into effect August 1. The present minimum charge for telegrams in England is one shilling, equivalent to about twenty-five cents for twenty words. The address and signature are telegraphed free. By the new rate the cost of sending ordinary messages is reduced about one-half. It is based, however, upon economy in the use of words in the address, which, being free, have often been made as long as possible, the average number of words in addresses being eleven. In order to correct this practice the English postoffice department has decided to charge for every word except the signature, the rate to be one cent a word, or a minimum of twelve words for six pence. Allowing five words for the average address, there will remain seven for carrying information. It will be optional to send more words for more money, but the tendency will be to confine the message to the minimum limit. The success of the new system will be watched with interest by the people of this country, where a postal telegraph will be adopted before many years.

The kicking of the mugwumps against their democratic allies grows more and more emphatic. The Boston Advertiser, the most thoughtful of the whole gentle flock, actually serves a warning on the party in the following vigorous fashion:

> Its leaders who think it is not still on trial, who imagine that the way to secure its tenure is to bring into prominence again the men who made the party a byword and a hissing in the loyal states by their truckling to the slave power, their sympathy with rebellion, their hostility to equal rights, their advocacy of repudiation, their steadfast antagonism to wise reforms and reasonable progress, and especially those who imagine that the democratic party will recommend itself by now bringing forward, and insisting upon reactionary policies which it dared not so much as name when seeking power and by becoming the champion of the very abuses in government and in party management on account of which chiefly the republican party was forsaken by thousands upon thousands of earnest men who were dissatisfied with its slow abandonment of evil methods which had come down from former democratic administrations—these are blind and stupid politicians who will lead their party into the ditch.

The United States, as a nation, and the popular states, have been asked to take part in the great exposition of "labor and works" to be held in Paris next July. The terms of the invitation are cordial and complimentary beyond precedent, confessing the superiority of recent American invention over that of Europe, and putting aside the best place in the exposition buildings for the American exhibition. Mr A. Labbe, agent consulaire de France, in this city, has been authorized to invite an exhibit from this state, and at his suggestion we present the matter to our people and urge a proper response. Oregon has been greatly benefited by her former enterprises in this direction, and interest should unite with state pride in prompting a display of whatever may extend the reputation of our state. We owe, besides, as a matter of courtesy, something in answer to so kind an invitation.

Minister Phelps has arranged to occupy the house of ex-Minister Lowell in Lowndes square, London, and expects to be in full possession by mid-May. He has engaged it for only one year, and the Burlington Free Press, Mr Phelps' home paper, says it is possible that he does not expect to remain abroad longer than that period. Judge Thurman may therefore have a chance to warm his toes before this administration closes.

"May God deliver us from war," said Admiral Symonds of the British navy recently. "I deem it my bounden though most painful duty to state that I consider the navy so starved, so weak in numbers, armament, stores and personnel that if a war broke out to-morrow I do not see how we could avoid the most awful disasters."

In an insulting manner the Tacoma Ledger refuses the invitation of the press of Oregon to join in the formation of a northwest press association. Its churlish and discourteous rejoinder was needless, besides being extremely ill bred. People who know anything about the common amenities of life, when they receive a courteous invitation may, of course, accept or not, but if they do not, they simply decline with thanks. THE OREGONIAN, it may be remarked—if that will soothe the Tacoma paper—is not taking the lead in the organization of this press association. It has simply consented to act with its brethren in the movement, out of courtesy to them. When the Tacoma paper gets over the "terminus big head," as it will in a few years, it may learn better behavior.

It is announced that Miss Cleveland, sister of the president, has retired from the White house because, in its management, "her principles, which are somewhat rigid, were not respected." Whereof the interpretation is that the large consumption of wines and liquors in the White house drew forth a protest from Miss Cleveland, and the protest proving of no avail, she declined to remain as mistress of the establishment. It may be in order to remark that the election of Miss Cleveland's brother to the presidency was an achievement of the prohibitionists.

A critic who has read an article by Gail Hamilton written for the June number of the North American Review gives it as his inference that "Gail has not the most exalted admiration for the cold water bolt of the last election." Considering her personal and intimate interest in the fortunes of Mr Blaine, whose race for the presidency was defeated by that same cold water bolt, Gail's lack of admiration is not surprising.

The New York Herald celebrated its fiftieth birthday a few days ago. Of the many wonderful changes it has witnessed during its half century of existence not the least is its own development from the little sheet of May 6, 1835, to the great septuple and octuple sheets of to-day.

It has been thought that, if pressed too hard in this country, the Mormons would move to Mexico, but that refuge is cut off by the announcement that no Mormons immigrating from the United States to that country will have any concessions granted them under the laws of Mexico, which expressly forbid polygamy.

The laws are beginning to bear heavily on the Mormons, and they go to President Cleveland to beg his protection. It is gratifying to note that the Mormons are feeling at last the force of federal "tyranny."

The Kansas City Times has a long article telling Missouri democrats how to apply for office. But it is about the last thing upon which an Oregon democrat needs instruction.

The brick work on Garrison's block is progressing rapidly. That of the first story is completed and the second begun. Three more brick buildings are projected and we will hardly get through the summer without a boom.

The grand council of Royal and Select Masons of Oregon completed its organization here on the 11th inst. The following officers were installed: Asa H. Hodson, illustrious grand master; W[illegible] Baldwin, deputy illustrious grand master; Christopher Taylor, illustrious grand king; Samuel Bullock, illustrious grand [illegible]; W. H. Harris, grand treasurer; P. J. Babcock, grand recorder; J. A. Newell, grand captain of guard; J. F. Wisecarver, grand steward; John I. Spencer, grand sentinel. The next session of the grand council will be held at Corvallis second Wednesday in January 1886.

The occasional showers that have fallen during the last week have dispelled all fears of a short crop. Fall wheat will be more than an average crop, and spring wheat will be as good as common, though the hay will be short. One old pioneer of 41 said during the driest time, "Oregon never did fail and she won't do it now, even if it don't rain." Forty-two years of sowing and reaping has established a confidence that emigrants would do well to make a note of. Neither drouths or cyclones or blizzards or sunstrokes or things present or things to come or change of administration ever separates Oregon from her accustomed seed time and harvest.

SPRAGUE ITEMS.

SPRAGUE, W. T., May 11.

The county seat of Lincoln county is permanently located in Sprague and the county is erecting a two-story jail.

A bountiful supply of rain fell last night in this section, and good crops are consequently assured. It is still raining at this writing.

Wool and cattle are being shipped and not a little money is put in circulation thereby. The town is improving, notwithstanding the dull times.

S. Newman & Co. have begun work on a two-story brick building which will be occupied by them for store purposes. Murphy & Burns also contemplate the erection of a brick store building. Last fall a public school building of brick was built at a cost of $5000. Thus it will be seen that improvements are assuming a substantial nature and the growth of Sprague is of a steady, healthy sort, free from booms which are so apt to be followed by injurious reactions.

It is thought the completion of the N. P. R. R. direct to Puget sound will afford a cheaper outlet for the grain of this section and will furnish us with plenty of timber and coal. At the present rates of freight wheat cannot be shipped to Portland from this section, even if prices were not so low. Heretofore farmers in the northern part of the county found a ready market at remunerative prices at Fort Spokane, while the demand for flour and seed grain from new comers has afforded a home market in other parts of the county. It is probable, however, that this year there will be quite a surplus for shipment. The population of Sprague now numbers probably 1500 people, with all lines of business represented. Lincoln county contains an abundance of good agricultural and grazing lands and there is no reason why the future of Sprague is not assured.

FOREST GROVE NOTES

FOREST GROVE, May 11.

One of the pleasantest and most successful musical entertainments that Forest Grove has been favored with for a long time was given at Verts' hall last night. Long before the curtain rose the ample room was crowded with attentive listeners who showed their appreciation by frequent and hearty encores and by a liberal contribution at the close of the exercises. The music showed careful preparation, and all the parts were well sustained. The piano solos and duets were well studied and executed with smoothness and expression. The songs and choruses were very bright and pleasing, and the little folks with their exercise songs quite brought down the house. The band boys have worked hard and have something to show for it. They made a fine appearance in their new uniforms. While the people of Forest Grove very greatly regret the removal of the school and feel somewhat aggrieved at the measures which have been taken [illegible]

WHAT IT IS

The Strange Reptile of Medical Lake Sized Up.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

If any one wishing to find out what this strange reptile is will put one into a globe or small tub of water containing a little moss and feed it with a few small fish and earth worms every day, watch it [illegible] ... this is only the tadpole of the future lizard, and [illegible] nothing but the axolotl found in the [illegible] of Mexico [illegible]. THE STAGE.

Quaker Testimony

[illegible] ... lady of this city, who being [illegible], was thrown violently and the injuries received resulted in [illegible] which grew and enlarged [illegible] death [illegible]. Her physician finally advised her to try Mrs. Pinkham's Compound. She did so and in a short time the tumor was dissolved or caused to slough off. [illegible] I also know of many cases where the medicine has been of great value in preventing miscarriage and alleviating the pains and dangers of childbirth. Philadelphia ladies appreciate the worth of this medicine and its great value."

THE CASH—A CONTRAST

New York Tribune.

[illegible] twenty-four years of republican [illegible] ... This is [illegible] ... Mr. Manning has [illegible] ... hundred [illegible] ...

Now, Messrs. Democrats, it is in order to thank you for disproving another of your favorite lies, which you have used in every campaign, especially in the rural districts. You have taught many people to believe that the treasury has been systematically robbed for a long time and that if the democrats could only get control and, in the language of Mr. Hendricks, "let the light of heaven into those vaults, there would be horrible things disclosed." Three times elaborate and costly investigations have been undertaken, some democratic senator having asserted that he had found traces of fraud and believed that millions had been stolen. Not a trace of wrong was discovered, but still the falsehood was persistently repeated and it was said that the officials in charge cunningly concealed the vast deficiency. At last, Messrs. Democrats, you have "the light of heaven," and an overhauling of the books and a counting of the cash by your own trained experts. And it proves that your leaders have been persistently lying year after year.

It is greatly to the credit of the republican party that after all the changes and excitement, the corruption and the temptation of twenty-four years [illegible] the struggles of the civil war and the issue of new kinds of currency in vast amounts, the result proves that the accounts have been absolutely correct, and the guardianship of the public money absolutely faithful. In a party point of view it was well worth the temporary loss of power consequent upon defeat last fall to secure this demonstration of the honesty and fidelity of republican officials. When republicans came in, it may be remembered, they found that the treasury had been robbed by Jacob Thompson, whom this administration takes pains to honor. The country will not fail to note the contrast.

"Oh, it was Pitiful"

Of course it was. He tried one remedy after another and finally gave up and died, when his life might have been saved by taking Dr Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the great Consumption Cure, which if promptly employed, will soon subdue all threatening symptoms, such as cough, labored breathing, night sweats, spitting of blood, etc., and restoring waning strength and hope, effectually stop the poor consumptive's rapid progress grave-ward. Is it not worth trying? All druggists.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

TO OREGON CITY, SIXTY FOUR CENTS.—A good many Oregon pioneers will read the new passenger tariff of the Oregon and California railroad, published in another column this morning, and smile a great big smile to think that odd cents have been fastened onto this land of riches—this favored spot of all earth, where they remember the "two bit" piece as once being the smallest coin, where they would have hid their faces in shame if they had so far forgotten themselves as to give a child less than a "bit" to buy candy with, where nickels made their appearance only since these pioneers sons have grown to ripe manhood. And now to read "Oregon City to Portland, 64 cents. Salem $2 19. Albany $3 23," and so on through the list. Oh, there will be a sweet time making change in the ticket offices. These odd cents for railroad fare are in vogue on a few New York and Yankee railroads, but very, very seldom if at all, west of the Alleghenies. And now to think that the nasty things are introduced into Oregon, of all the states in this glorious union. All the railroad agents will be supplied with a reasonable stock of copper cents, but the cashier will never be able to keep up the supply. None of the coppers given out will ever get back into the "box office." The experiment was tried at the postoffice here when the postal notes came into fashion and giving odd cents in change was a dismal, mortifying failure. More complaints have come to THE OREGONIAN from persons who imagined themselves beat out of one cent or two cents at the money order office, than were heard about the First street railway during Joe Holladay's entire reign as owner and manager. But the railroad agents will probably lay in a stock of stamps, which the postoffice man is forbidden to do. One can easily imagine the look of disgust on the face of some old pioneer who applies at Salem for a ticket to Portland, lays down a $5 gold piece, and receives in change $2 81 in silver and a two-cent stamp. He will cuss the railroad and the Hoult bill, and the fate that ever forced him to pay or receive the coin of the realm in less sums than even change.

MEN IN LOW BUSINESS.—Mollie Thayer, a courtezan, was arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Woodard yesterday upon a charge of selling liquor without a government license. The complaint was laid by the man commonly known as Ex Governor Daniels, who spends most of his time among Chinamen and that class of women. Daniels gave to Prosecuting Attorney Watson a list of witnesses who would prove the charge, among them being John A. Carr. When the case was called, neither Daniels nor Carr would testify to any violation of the law of their own knowledge. The other witnesses were women of the defendant's own ilk, and testified in her favor, hence she was discharged. It was stated during the progress of the examination that the arrest had been instigated by Carr, who became bondsman for the woman several weeks ago when she was arrested for keeping a bagnio in East Portland. Carr feared she would go away and leave him in the lurch, so he wanted her put in jail and thus kept securely to await her trial. This version proved to be the right one, for no sooner had the woman been discharged by the United States authorities than Carr went to Sheriff Jordan and refused to be longer responsible for her. She surrendered herself about the same time, but had no trouble in regaining her liberty, as Joe Taylor became her bondsman. The United States authorities were very much disgusted at the part they had been compelled to play in the matter, and the next complainant who fails to make his case good is liable to get into trouble.

INDIAN SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT.—The graduating exercise of the first class of the Indian school located at Forest Grove took place at the Y. M. C. A. hall last evening. The entertainment commenced with an address by Dr Coffin, by way of introduction. The first of the selections rendered was "Beautiful Gem Waltz," by the band, which elicited a hearty encore and evinced a good degree of discipline and ability. This was followed by a chorus of mixed voices, which was excellent and thoroughly enjoyed by those present, as shown by the applause with which it was greeted. The response to their encore was the singing by the entire class of the old and familiar piece, "It is well with my Soul." The next was a duet, "The North Wind," by two little Indian children aged 7 and 9 years, from Alaska, and this fairly captivated the audience. The little ones responded to a hearty encore by a duet upon the harmonica and piano, which proved equally interesting. A polka by the orchestra was followed by a chorus by the little people, entitled "Hop, Hop." The entire programme was well rendered and exhibited the most careful training upon the part of the Indian pupils as well as reflecting great credit upon their instructors.

STOLE THE GARDEN HOSE.—Early yesterday morning a Chinaman was espied by a policeman hastening toward Chinatown and carrying about fifty feet of garden hose with a nozzle attached. As his kind of property is something in which Chinamen rarely indulge, he was arrested on suspicion and locked up in the city jail to await the appearance of the pre-supposed owner. It was not long to wait. When Mr W. L. Chittenden of No. 88 Yamhill street got up in the morning he missed his garden hose. To be sure he did not need it just then, but thinking he might before the summer was over, he started down town to report the theft to the police. The first thing he saw when he stepped into the captain's office was his hose. Consequently there is a clear case of larceny against the Chinaman, who is known by the name of Ah Jim. Unfortunately the theft does not come under the range of penitentiary offenses, as the hose was stolen from the yard and not from the house. Hence petty larceny is the extent of the crime and imprisonment in the county jail the greatest penalty.

POLICE COURT.—The case against Mrs Wright, arrested upon complaint of Alexander Keegan, ex justice of the peace, for dumping swill in the streets, was dismissed, and the defendant's bonds exonerated. The case against Jacob Kamm, who was charged with carrying on business as a wharfinger without a license, was also dismissed. Ida Tharnton, the bawd who was arrested upon a charge of vagrancy, was fined $25. Henry Winser, Sam Teed and C. A. Anderson, arrested for drunkenness, were each fined $10. The Chinaman, Lowey Fee, who was arrested for a burglary committed about a year ago, waived an examination and was held to answer before the grand jury. Ah Jim, who stole W. L. Chittenden's garden hose, said through an interpreter, that he was not guilty, and his examination was continued until to-day.

GOOD AVERAGE OF FLEECES.—James Robinson of The Dalles, who has a band of wethers on the John Day, was in the city yesterday to market his wool. He sheared 1961 sheep, and the wool weighed 18,685 pounds—an average of over nine pounds to the fleece, which is a very handsome yield. Mr. Robinson sold his wool in San Francisco for 16 cents, which will give him about 13½ cents at Alkali. This price is not a high one—just about a fair average—but there is still money in sheep at that price if the herd is properly taken care of. Mr Robinson's sheep were well fed and cared for during the storm last winter. He says that another band on the John Day of 3000 stock sheep averaged ten pounds to the fleece. Some bands, which were not fed during the storm, ate the wool off one another's backs and will consequently not average so well.

MORE OF THE HOME PRODUCTION.—Our market is now well supplied with fruits and vegetables of Oregon production. There has been but little in this line brought up from California this spring and the only fruit now coming is a few poor apricots. A few new potatoes, some cabbage, cauliflower, green peas and beans about comprise the list. We have plenty of strawberries, cherries, gooseberries, pie plant, asparagus, lettuce, etc., of our own production and all much better than is furnished from California. Of course our unusually early spring has much to do with this, but as the years roll around our gardeners are learning to do better and it may be expected that in the future we shall never have to draw on California so extensively for early vegetables as has been done in the past.

MEN'S CARE.—The gentleman who is so [illegible] around town gives evidence of possessing all the necessary energy for the business, but his judgment cannot be commended. He has entered quite a number of houses and has only secured a few dollars, hardly enough to buy beer, and he has been slapped in the face with a slipper and raced out of several houses. He is probably hard up—it may be hungry and hollow—but if he will only keep on he will soon get filled so full of buckshot that he will never feel hungry again. The last festive burglar we had here, Jones was his name, [illegible] much better than this fellow, who must be [illegible] amateur. The public have no respect for such a bungling burglar, and the police had better take him in before he gets hurt.

BRITISH BENEVOLENT SOCIETY.—The annual meeting of the British Benevolent Society was held Wednesday evening. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Frederick Townsend; vice president, James R. Cameron; secretary, G. W. Percy; treasurer, Hugh Roger; board of relief, John Cran, John Reid, Dr K. A. J. Mackenzie; directors, Wm. Mackintosh, Dr. G. H. Chance, Mr Andrew Roberts. The annual dinner of the society will be held on Saturday, the 23d inst., at the Esmond hotel.

NO WONDER HE WANTS TO COME.—E. J. Bryant of Two Harbors, Minnesota, writes to THE OREGONIAN under date of the [illegible] subscribing for the weekly, and saying that he wants to come out this fall. One reason for his wanting to come is contained in his postscript as follows: "It began snowing here May 6 at 8 A. M., and snowed until 8 A. M. of the 8th, just forty-eight hours without a stop. The snow now lies at a depth of twenty six inches." Just think of that you Oregonians, who are enjoying strawberries at twenty-five cents a pound. If Mr Bryant was out here now, he'd buy a farm at once, stay and then send back for his family.

MISSIONARY MEETING.—The missionary prayer meeting at the First Congregational church yesterday evening was peculiarly interesting. The subject was "Micronesia." An essay prepared by Mrs Bosworth of Forest Grove was read by Miss Eggert, and an essay from the pen of Miss Harris of Albany was read by M[illegible]. Both papers were full of information touching the missionary fields of which they treated. They were written for the Willamette Association of Congregational Churches, and were given at Corvallis last week. Dr Marvin was so pleased with them that he secured them for his own congregation.

WILLAMETTE STEAMBOAT COMPANY.—Articles of incorporation were filed yesterday afternoon in the office of County Clerk Sanders, of the Willamette Steamboat Company, just organized for the purpose of building and purchasing boats to ply in the waters of the Willamette and lower Columbia and all their navigable tributaries, and to purchase real estate and transact all other business as may tend to the success of their purpose. The incorporators are Messrs. S. G. Reed, H. W. Winch and W. H. Pope, and the capital stock of the company is to consist of $30,000, divided into 300 shares of $100 each.

LAKE TROUT.—A large number of fine lake trout from up the Northern Pacific—probably from Lake Pend d'Oreille—were in the market yesterday. There were some beauties among them weighing from 4 to 6 pounds. They are covered with spots as large in diameter as swan shot, which along the sides are a deep orange, almost red, and paling off to light yellow on the back. If such fish could be found in the creeks around here there would be some fun fishing for them. Among the lot of fish above mentioned were some weighing from a pound to two pounds which, from the marks upon them, appeared to have been seined.

CUTTING DOWN FORCES.—Orders were received this week from Northern Pacific headquarters in New York to cut down the construction force now engaged on the Cascades branch to the smallest limit possible. A good many men were discharged yesterday. It is also reported on good authority that a sweeping reduction will be made next week in operating expenses by cutting down the number of employes and the salaries of those who remain. This step is considered necessary on account of the unexpected large decrease in earnings last month.

ONE MONTH WEDDED.—Julius Sekler has brought suit for a divorce from his wife Lena. They were married in this city March 31, 1885, and on May 3, after only a little over one month of wedded bliss, Lena arose and departed from her Julius, apparently forever. During this short time, nevertheless, Julius complains that his wife abused him shamefully, tore up his clothing, called him a dutch fool and other names too vile to repeat. What has become of her now he does not care, and he is at present equally as willing to pay the divorce fees as he was to settle for the marriage license.

JUDGMENT AGAINST BERNSTEIN.—Russ Bros. & Co. of San Francisco yesterday obtained judgment by default in department No. 1 of the state circuit court yesterday against Jacob Bernstein, a tailor of this city, for the sum of $2748 80. The plaintiffs represented several other firms of San Francisco who had furnished goods to Bernstein which had never been paid for, and who assigned their claims so as to have all brought in one suit.

REFEREE APPOINTED.—In the case of Eastman & McClure, of California, against George C. LaRocque, which is a suit to compel the payment of a promissory note for $400, Charles H. Carey was yesterday appointed referee to take testimony. The court also issued an order commanding the defendant to appear in court and answer certain questions which the plaintiff's attorney has to propound.

FOR THE ORGAN FUND.—The first annual concert of the choral union of the First Baptist church will be held at the church, corner of Fourth and Alder streets, this evening. Mrs Grover, Prof Meyer, F. W. Low, Ralph Hoyt and many others will take part. The entertainment will consist of songs, quartettes, anthems, piano solos, etc. The proceeds of the concert will be given to the organ fund of the church.

UNION EXCURSION.—The First Congregational and the Unitarian Sunday-schools of this city will unite in an excursion to be held Saturday, May 23. The place selected by a mutual committee will be Oregon City, and one of the best steamboats on the river will be chartered. The teachers and pupils of both schools anticipate a pleasant time.

STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL.—The young people will give a strawberry and ice cream festival in the lecture-room of Taylor Street M. E. church this evening. No admittance fee will be charged. An interesting programme will be presented.

VARNEY'S EXCURSION.—Should to-day be pleasant the excursion to Oregon City to be given by Professor Varney will take place as announced. The dancing will take place at Pope's hall in case of rain.

POSTPONED.—On account of the inclemency of the weather the Ladies' Aid society of St. John's Presbyterian church have postponed their ice cream and strawberry festival until Friday, May 22.

TWENTY FIVE DOLLARS REWARD.

I will pay twenty-five dollars reward for every round trip ticket from Portland to Chicago which is sold by Mr. Childs on his proposed excursion—for $12 00 or less—which specifies that the holder is entitled to first-class accommodations either going or returning. This reward will be in addition to the purchase price of the ticket.

PROBATE COURT.

The following business was transacted by County Judge Moreland in the probate department of the county court yesterday:

In the matter of the estate of James S. Smith deceased, the final account of the executrix was examined and approved, and she was discharged.

The same action was taken in the matter of the estate of Anthony Boyce.

For the purpose of settling up the estate of W. W. McGohan deceased, J. M. Lewis was appointed guardian ad litem of Mrs. Eliza [illegible] who [illegible] right [illegible]

Cyrus [illegible] Carr, Daniel Walter and [illegible] were appointed appraisers of certain [illegible] Marion [illegible] Knott deceased.

The hearing of the final account of the executor of the estate of Thomas Baird, deceased, was set for January 15.

COURT NOTES.

The case of Richard Dobb vs. Robert Irving was yesterday dismissed.

The case of Chung Wong for larceny is set for trial to-day in the state circuit court department No. [illegible]

[illegible] Smith will call the docket on Saturday in department No. 1 of the state circuit court and set down cases for trial.

The demurrer to the complaint in the case of F. [illegible] H. D. Crum vs. S. R. Parrish [illegible] was yesterday [illegible] by Judge Stearns.

Mary C. Oll [illegible] yesterday took judgment in [illegible] against Robert Switzler for the [illegible] $4[illegible] and the cost and disbursement [illegible]

PERSONAL.

Judge Deady left for Corvallis yesterday [illegible] on a short trip.

Mr. T. C. Judkins of Eugene has returned from Washington, D. C., where he has spent the winter.

Lieutenant Benjamin Munday, assistant surgeon, has been relieved from duty at Fort Klamath and will go to Fort Walla Walla.

Edward Duncan, who has been ill in this city for some time, is now much improved in health. He expects soon to return to his old position on [illegible]

Mr. [illegible] Jones will [illegible] on Saturday via the Short Line [illegible] returning [illegible] month via the North [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

EXCURSIONISTS.

The route from St. Paul to Chicago, which has been selected by Mr Childs, namely, the Albert Lea or "Rock Island," which is the same, is one hundred and twenty-five miles longer than the famous Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railway, and it is inferior in every other respect. Mr Childs selected that line because there was more money in it for him personally than there was in the Chicago, Milwaukee and St Paul, and his patrons have to suffer the consequences. You can insist upon having your ticket only to St. Paul, or you can get the whole ticket of Mr. A. L. Maxwell, Ash street dock, who will sell you any way you wish to go.

CHEAP RATES ON VEGETABLES.

Sweeping Reduction by the O. & C. Road from All Points to Portland

Below will be found the rate in cents per hundred pounds on vegetables in any quantity, sacked, boxed or [illegible] from all stations on the Oregon and California railroad to Portland. It is about the same rate [illegible] on small quantities that was granted last year by the company for carload lots, and will put an end to the complaints that freight charges eat up any profit that farmers and gardeners might make on garden products raised for this market. Rates on the east side division include free delivery in Portland.

STEAMER SUNK

The City of Salem in Tow of the Isabel Strikes a Reef in Rock Island Rapids—Can She be Raised?

The [illegible] the City of Salem took [illegible] while coming down the Willamette [illegible] from Salem. Yesterday she was taken in tow by the steamer Isabel for this city. In passing Rock Island rocks the passage being narrow the Isabel drew ahead keeping a line out to the City of Salem. The Isabel had passed [illegible] the narrow channel but too much [illegible] was given the City of Salem and she struck [a sub]merged reef above Dave rock tearing a hole [illegible] eight feet long in her port side about amidships. This tipped her and she now lies with [illegible] above her main deck and [illegible] held up by the rock. Captain Ral[illegible] of the sunken boat immediately attempted to stop the inflow of water but with no success as the boat soon listed over to the position described. He arrived here yesterday evening on the Isabel to arrange for raising his boat. He thinks this can be done as she is not in bad condition. She had on board seventy seven tons of flour from the Capital mills, about twenty tons of which is damaged. The rest was brought down by the Isabel.

The City of Salem is owned jointly by the Capitol Mills Company of Salem and William Reid of this city. She was built in this city in 18[illegible] was 4[illegible] tons register gross and could carry about [illegible] tons. Her value was from $[illegible],000 to $18,000, which is [illegible] [illegible] She has been engaged in carrying wheat from the Willamette [illegible] mills [illegible] from the mills [to] this city.

A veteran steamboat man who knows the upper Willamette thoroughly heard of the accident and the position the steamer is now in. He said to an OREGONIAN reporter that he believed the steamer could not be raised. In the first place she has no bulkheads and the water cannot be pumped or forced out of her hull. Secondly there is no beach on that side where she could be hauled out. A similar accident happened to the old Reliance, one of Ben Holladay's boats, about ten years ago in the same place and she had to be torn all to pieces. The government snag boat was engaged and fastened on to her boiler and lifted it out bodily. Her engines were taken in the same way, but the house was a wreck.

He regards the attempt to tow the City of Salem through such dangerous water as Rock Island rapids as unwise in the extreme. Even with a very powerful tow boat under most favorable circumstances this [illegible]. The weather yesterday was especially [illegible] in the custom with upper river boats when they break a shaft or do not [illegible] current [illegible] and send the shaft to Portland for repairs by the first passing boat, then have the shaft sent back to the boat.

ASCENDING MOUNT SHASTA.

An Easy Journey as Compared with the Snow Peaks of Oregon and Washington.

J. K. Stuart, artist, who left here on the last of April to make sketches of Mount Shasta, and if practicable to ascend that mountain, returned home last evening. He took the freight train from Roseburg to Ashland in order to travel through Cow Creek canyon during the day time and was repaid by seeing some very grand and beautiful scenery. Staying at Ashland all night he took the stage the next morning to the summit of the Siskiyous, where he made a sketch of Mount Shasta. Next day he proceeded to Pilot rock, a well known landmark since pioneer days. From the summit of this he made another sketch of the mountain and then went on to Yreka, from the vicinity of which he made several sketches. He then proceeded to Sisson's, where he made a sketch of Mount Shasta from the southwest. In clambering a rocky point he was struck on the leg by a falling stone and was laid up at Sisson's several days. However, by the time suitable weather had arrived he was ready for the ascent, and with W. A. Chamberlain as guide started from Sisson's at 1 P. M. on Saturday and arrived at the timber line at [illegible] in the evening. The snow at this time extends for some distance down into the timber.

They camped on a bare rock, and arising at 2 o'clock the next morning had breakfast and were ready to start up the mountain at 4 o'clock. The snow was hard and smooth and no difficulty was experienced till they had attained an altitude of about 13,000 feet, when they were obliged to cut steps [illegible] standing at an angle of 45 degrees, for about a thousand feet to the "thumb." From this point they flashed signals to Sisson's, twelve miles distant, with a mirror, and were answered. From this point the climbing was easy and at [illegible] o'clock they stood upon the summit by a cylindrical monument of sheet iron about nine feet high and thirty inches in diameter. They flashed signals to Sisson's but received no answer, as it had not been thought they would reach the summit so soon and no one was on the lookout. Owing to its being so early in the season the summit was rather cold for comfort. Their beards were covered with icicles and their fingers and toes benumbed. They had a good view of the country from the upper valley of the Sacramento to the Siskiyous, including Scott's mountains, Klamath and many other lakes. Outside of the view there is but little to tempt any one to linger on the summit of a snow peak, so after registering their names they soon started for the lower levels. At [illegible]00 feet below the summit they found a boiling spring, the waters of which were strongly impregnated with sulphur. The rocks on the mountain are all sedimentary, not a particle of lava or basalt to be seen. They left this spring at 11 30, and seating themselves on sacks taken up for this purpose slid for three miles in a very jolly manner, reaching camp at 3 o'clock and arriving safely back at Sisson's at 6 0 that evening. Later in the season the ascent can be made without trouble from the cold.

Mr. Stuart, who has done more mountain climbing than perhaps any other man in Oregon, says that the ascent of Shasta was the least fatiguing trip of the kind he has ever made. They were not troubled by the rarity of the atmosphere, bleeding at the nose, snow blindness or any of the many disagreeables which usually attend the ascent of such lofty peaks.

JUDGE ADVOCATE GENERAL

Colonel Henry A. Morrow Suggested for the Position.

It is rumored that President Cleveland is willing to appoint from the army a judge advocate to succeed General Swaim, and Colonel Henry A. Morrow, of the Twenty-first infantry, has been suggested as an officer deserving the position. Here where Colonel Morrow has so lately served the opinion is unanimous that no better selection could be made. His numerous public addresses delivered during his stay in the northwest were markedly intense patriotism and deep historical research and show Colonel Morrow to be an orator as well as soldier. His speeches on issues [illegible] never failed to elicit ardent applause. The law was his chosen profession, and in 1862 H. A. Morrow occupied an enviable position among the lawyers of Michigan. Knowing that the colonel had mingled with the legal fraternity in Oregon a reporter was yesterday detailed to ascertain the opinions of a few members of the bar.

Ex Attorney General George H. Williams was found at his office and the following conversation ensued:

Reporter—[illegible] Colonel Morrow's name mentioned in connection with the position of judge advocate general, since General Swaim should be retired?

Yes, and I think that I would be an excellent [illegible] Colonel Morrow has all the qualifications for the [illegible]. A judge advocate general ought to be a man of legal attainments and military experience. Colonel Morrow is a good lawyer with ample knowledge of army matters. I have known him for a long time by reputation, and have had an intimate personal acquaintance with him for the last three or four years.

Did you while attorney general know of Colonel Morrow?

Yes. While I was attorney general he was in command in Utah and I was brought in close relationship with his official duties in that territory. I know that many troublesome questions arising growing out of the Mormon imbroglio, while he was there, which Colonel Morrow handled admirably and to the entire satisfaction of President Grant. Colonel Morrow's services during the war [illegible] well known. I consider him a man of fine [illegible] [illegible] ability, with an energy of character and I have [illegible] the office of judge advocate general.

Thanking General Williams for his kindness the [reporter] [illegible] his steps toward the United States court house, where Judge Deady was found in [illegible].

I do [illegible] replied the judge [illegible] I know General Morrow quite well for several years while he was in command at Vancouver barracks. I think he has for the position of judge advocate general special qualifications which are not common among army officers. He is eminently worthy of the place and I should like very much to see him receive the appointment.

Ex Senator James K. Kelly expressed himself as very favorable to Colonel Morrow's appointment. He said:

I have [illegible] acquainted with Colonel Morrow for [illegible] years and know him [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] to [illegible] for the [illegible]

It is duty to express himself well [illegible] his numerous public addresses delivered [illegible] this military department. He was [illegible] [illegible] a brilliant conversationalist and a gen[tleman] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the army added to [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the office of judge advocate, to the entire satisfaction of [illegible] the army.

After the [illegible] remarks the [illegible] and the reporter [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the position of judge advocate [illegible].

ABOUT THE LATEST NEW COMERS.

Notes Gathered around the State Immigration Board Rooms Yesterday

The amount of cash value to Oregon of each immigrant per head is more a matter of speculation than anything else, but through a system adopted by Secretary Carlisle of the state board it is possible to open a tolerably fair debit and credit account, or strike a dollar and cent balance. He commenced that plan last December and for that and the succeeding month of January the average amount of cash brought by the immigrant was $900. An examination of the record for April and so far in May shows that the average has increased to upwards of $1000.

During the past ten days a great many people who had gone into western Washington under the impression that they would find an extensive farming region returned here and took tickets to points in the Willamette valley.

More than 50 per cent of the immigrants arriving at the rooms of the state board are from the northern states.

There is every indication that there will be an unparalleled influx of immigration to this state this fall, especially from the states of Iowa, Minnesota, Dakota, Michigan, Illinois and Nebraska. An immigrant who has [lived] at Yankton, Dakota, for the past four years, and who arrived yesterday, tells [illegible] that the people are preparing to flee from that locality just as soon as they can harvest the growing crop. He says many of them will abandon their farms rather than remain to endure the discomforts of another winter. He says it is not a good place to live where a man has to struggle through three months of summer in order to provide fuel enough for nine months of winter. Much the same report is brought by the Iowa and Minnesota people.

It is significant that while Secretary Carlisle is [making] one round trip [illegible] over the Oregon and California road he fills up twenty [illegible] tickets. In reply to the question "Do you want a round trip ticket?" [illegible] all new [illegible] reply "No, I've come to stay." A great many of these people stop here to rest in the [illegible] with [illegible] accumulating [illegible] this [illegible] but the great majority [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the husband [illegible] of the Willamette valley.

The [illegible] immigrant from the cold side of Michigan or the sunniest regions of Dakota never grows weary of standing before one of our fruit stores and contemplating the strawberries and tomatoes. You can hear his mouth water up.

Yesterday a Dakota man visited the state board rooms and he became so enthusiastic over the sight of green things that he went a few blocks to a residence, begged a handful of grass, put it into an envelope with a letter and mailed it to his friends near Yankton. Said he: "That'll tell 'em about what the dove told Noah."

A large percentage of those who come from California go to Eastern Oregon.

The man who expects to find money growing on trees in Oregon is [illegible] and there among immigrants.

Most of the immigrants from the western states are pretty well posted on the actual condition of things here in Oregon. Not a few of the latest arrivals have come in consequence of close correspondence with those who came a year ago and made homes. This close correspondence has certainly given a great impetus to immigration.

The object of the state board was to make Oregon known to strangers, but every day there comes an illustration of the fact that it is making the state known to Oregonians. During the last few weeks several men of sound health and strong bodies, who were scarcely making a living in Portland, have been wise enough to profit by the information collected at the state board rooms and have taken land for a home in the country. Instances of this kind are becoming frequent and are sure to become more so.

Through the courtesy of the agents here representing railways centering at Chicago the state board has been enabled to make a judicious distribution of a large amount of immigration literature during the past week.

The present early spring and the delightful weather found by immigrants upon their arrival here will make Oregon famous the world over and do more than all else to advertise this region.

The infant child of Mr and Mrs Ross, immigrants from Germany, who arrived here on Monday and have located at Lebanon, died at the Globe hotel in this city Wednesday evening. The body was taken to Lebanon for burial.

The Webster Suit

I take great pleasure in informing my friends and the public in general that I have this day bought the whole interest of Mr. A. Kohn in the firm known as Kohn & Steinbach, corner First and Morrison. I will continue the business in the same place as heretofore.

In thanking our friends and the public in general for the large and liberal patronage which they have bestowed upon us heretofore, I hope to be favored with a continuance of the same. Respectfully yours,

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure.
This powder never varies. A marvel of purity, strength and wholesomeness. More economical than the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in competition with the multitude of low test, short weight, alum or phosphate powders. Sold only in cans.
WM. T. COLEMAN & CO., Agts., San Francisco.

MALARIA
Enters the system from unknown causes, at all seasons.
Shatters the Nerves, Impairs Digestion, and Enfeebles the Muscles.
BROWN'S IRON BITTERS
THE BEST TONIC
Quickly and completely cures Malaria, and Chills and Fevers. For Intermittent Fevers, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, it has no equal. It enriches and purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, and strengthens the muscles and nerves.
It does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—all other Iron medicines do.
FATHER T. J. REILLY, the patriotic and scholarly Catholic Divine, of Arkansas, says:
"I have used Brown's Iron Bitters with the greatest satisfaction for Malaria, and as a preventive of Chills and like diseases, and will always keep it on hand as a ready friend."
Genuine has above trade mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no other. Made only by BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.
LADIES' HAND BOOK—useful and attractive, containing list of prizes for recipes, information about coins, etc., given away by all dealers in medicine, or mailed to any address on receipt of 2c. stamp.

New rain fell Monday forenoon [illegible] heavy showers have prevailed [illegible] hard rain Wednesday afternoon [illegible] some clearing weather at times The Willamette valley has now received quite all moisture needed [illegible] for some time and the eastern section is equally fortunate hard rains prevailing there Tuesday night All advices say cereal crops are saved from drought Even the Spokane country comes in for its share of moisture To-day light showers are prevailing with some indications of clearing weather Press dispatches note light rains in California yesterday but it will be of no decided [illegible] crops as [illegible] sown [illegible] in the same proportion that [illegible] sown [illegible] The great western wheat [illegible] is being closely canvassed by operators and return gatherers Of the winter wheat east of the Rockies there is no new reason for changing previous estimates of a 25 per cent shortage over last year The acreage of spring wheat is believed to be less than last year In short everything points to a falling off from last year of 100,000,000@120,000,000 bushels in the total yield California will certainly fall far behind last year These very prominent indications are being used carelessly by the bear element and with very good effect as well as reason Foreign buyers realize that the growing crops almost the world over are to be short, and that the available supply will be greatly under last year's The quantity of wheat afloat shows no lessening but imports into the United Kingdom have lately been so light as to compel drawing upon stocks Those markets have ruled irregular without suffering a final loss which [illegible] leads to the conclusion that the general undertone remains a strong one The probabilities of war are so far removed as to cut little [illegible] and no consideration The course of [illegible] markets rest now upon most natural and healthful conditions

FREIGHTS—The market has presented every appearance of dullness yet several transactions are to be reported The iron bark Remonstrant closed a Liverpool freight probably [illegible] from Astoria by Meyer Wilson & Co and the iron bark San Luis closed a grain freight by Balfour Guthrie & Co The Cassandra iron accepted a lumber freight from Puget sound and sailed for loading port Last charters made, being mostly for berth freight can have no influence on the grain market Rates paid were on the basis of 41s 3d direct and at this the market may be quoted Owners while holding higher views accepted this and gave long lay days in preference to waiting even long for an uncertain market One of our disengaged iron had a firm offer of 41s 3d direct June [illegible] but refused it The spot list shows some change by reason of new business The Edward [illegible] sailed Tuesday with wheat and the Tillie [illegible] buck filled up The Haddingtonshire arrived sacking and at noon a bark was sighted outside presumably the Carnarvon Castle The Overdale is stricken from the en route list but the Zanoré is believed to be near at hand

WHEAT—The foreign markets have ruled quiet with some degree of weakness yet cargo values did not suffer As compared with last Thursday quotations show 3d advance in California off coast [illegible] decline in California prompt shipment and 6d advance in red winter for shipment others being without change Liverpool spot is 2d lower except for spring The quantity afloat shows an increase of 190,000 qrs wheat and flour Chicago and New York gathered near the close and are higher as against one week ago San Francisco has shown little change and this for the better Reports have been of easy markets yet prices show the opposite Trading continued light and sellers have retained firm hold In the local market a light trade has been noted yet transactions show a very firm market holders refusing to concede anything Bidding rates were $1 27½ and $1 35 for Walla Walla and valley actual sales showing $1 30@1 37½ paid In at least one instance doubtless exceptional $1 31¼ was paid for Walla Walla We quote valley $1 35@1 37½ Walla Walla $1 [illegible] @1 30 Receipts have ruled quite free for the time of year, and are still partly for San Francisco where off grades are more easily disposed of and choice is wanted Regarding the immediate outlook for prices there is little to say Indications point to a very steady market until other centers are swayed by some new influence Now all interest is centered upon growing crops and weather We of the North Pacific coast have every reason to expect a full crop late rains having dispelled all apprehensions felt

FLOUR—Movement rather light in the week and almost wholly local in character Values rule steady Standards quoted $4 50 others $3 [illegible] @4 25 Interior local trade is more satisfactory and eastern Washington mills are sending less this way

MILLSTUFF—Receipts have ruled fairly free some bran going to San Francisco Local wants are easily supplied and values are not firm Jobbing values steady at bran, $11@12 chop $16@20, shorts $14@17, middlings $18@20 per ton

BARLEY—Best brewing held at $20 00@[illegible] but the request is light feed qualities quoted $16@18 per ton

OATS—The market has lost some of its strength by reason of free offerings and a weaker shipping market yet values have suffered no decided decline and 33@35c have been paid At the close more is opened at 35c with buyers holding off Good to choice may be quoted at 35@37c with a shade advance for extra Poor grades find no favor and are hard to place at 25@30c

POTATOES—Only a local trade doing shipments having fallen off to almost nothing Offerings far exceed demands, but 15c is the quotation for common lots Very few choice offered and the request is stagnant New California selling at $1 35@1 50 per cental

ONIONS—Hard local jobbing at 4½c A few new California have been received but meet with little favor

APPLES—Almost nothing done Choice nominally quoted 75c@$1 25 Demand light

FRUITS AND VEGETABLES—Good business done in most kinds and receipts have sold up close Best quality oranges sold higher lemons fell off under larger and more varied arrivals cherries sold lower and local will soon be in strawberries have fallen off under free offerings but are not expected to go lower unless peddlers cut rates a few California tomatoes and apricots have been received local gooseberries have been shipped to California canners, other sorts call for no special mention We quote selling prices oranges $1 75@2 50, lemons, $8, limes $1 25 cocoanuts, 8c, bananas $3 75@4 50 cabbage 4c cauliflower, $1 25 celery $1, green peas, 4c gooseberries, 3@5c strawberries, 4@5c California cherries $1 per 8lb box tomatoes $3 50 per box.

HONEY—Strained, 7c comb 15c

BUTTER—Demand mostly supplied from local sources [illegible]

POULTRY—Chickens continue [illegible] selling at $4 [illegible] Ducks [illegible] Geese [illegible] Turkeys 10@11 [illegible]

EGGS—Sold steadily at 12@12½ no attempt being made to advance prices because of free receipts Late arrivals are frequently complained of as being of old stock

HAY—Choice fairly steady at $9@11 common to poor slow at $6 50@8

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, May 14—Governments unchanged except a decline of ¼ in 4s and coupon 4s and an advance of ¼ in coupon 4½s

The feature of to-day's stock market has been heavy trading in Lackawanna accompanied by a decided break in the price during the forenoon followed later by a rally, in which about one fourth of the loss was recovered The rest of the market was quiet, and while it sympathized to a certain degree with the movements in Lackawanna the fluctuations were within a much narrower range and with the exception of the morning break prices were steady and strong all day During the last hour and a half the whole list responded to the upward movement and prices advanced slowly but steadily to the close of the board The result of the day's operations shows a gain of a small fraction, generally ⅛ to ½ per cent for the most active stocks of the list although Louisville and Nashville in which there was unusual activity is up 1⅛, and Oregon Railway and Navigation 1 while Lackawanna Delaware and Hudson and Central New Jersey are lower

There was more activity in the mining market during the forenoon than in the same hours for several days transactions footing up 5625 shares and embracing fifteen stocks Alta sold at 40 Alice at $2 Argenta at 14 Bulwer at 30 Best & Belcher $3 40, $3 [illegible] Con California and Virginia at $1 55 [illegible] $1 50 [illegible] $1 30 Grand Prize at 70 Hale & Norcross at $[illegible] Iron Silver at $1 40, Kossuth at 60 Little Chief at 25 Navajo at $1 35, Plymouth at $16 50 Sutro Tunnel at $17, Standard at $1 30, and Savage at $4 [illegible] In the afternoon Iron Silver sold at $1 40@1 50 Kossuth at $6, Standard at $1 30@1 25, Con Pacific at $4 Horn Silver at $1 90, California and Virginia at $1 70@1 75 Little Chief at 24@25@24, Navajo at $1 20 Amie at $3 and Grand Prize at 70

POLITICAL EXPRESSION.

Voicing the Rising Tide of Discontent with President Cleveland's Course

[illegible] President Cleveland [illegible] the administration [illegible] With [illegible] of Mr Bayard [illegible] An Andy [illegible] [illegible] with 40,000 postoffices [illegible] Nearly two thirds of them are still [illegible] the rank and file of the party [illegible] After two months of [illegible] thought [illegible] This is to give [illegible] only [illegible] on fourth of the postoffices to the democrats [illegible] remaining three-fourths republicans Such a distribution [illegible] The administration [illegible] If the [illegible] policy [illegible] the president [illegible] that the crisis [illegible] the democrats [illegible] Meanwhile Mr Cleveland [illegible] the claims of those who elected him to office [illegible] Mr [illegible] does [illegible]

The Common People

[illegible]

[illegible] the charge that he never spoke [illegible] the United States senate and that [illegible] he says those [illegible] This sounds [illegible] Declaration of Independence [illegible] That grand instrument tells us that all men were created free and equal and heretofore if any dissented from such a proposition they were not [illegible] enough to go about advertising their sentiments

Bayard further says that when he meets with an humble life he refrains from reminding him of his unequal position This is refreshing talk coming from a democrat but Bayard jumps plump into the lap of foolishness when he declares that the lower class are equal to each other but unequal to me. Further on in the delightful conversation the grand secretary said he always makes it a point to give the common people a respectful consideration This is worse and more of it

Bayard talks as loftily as a prince and the next thing we shall hear is that when the common people meet him they will kneel and kiss his aristocratic fingers If a republican indulged in such nonsense the Jacksonians would raise a terrible howl It is known that poor Brewster's frills excited the average democrat's ineffable scorn and when it was learned that his swell turnout was [illegible] English the country trembled before their indignation But Brewster's little vanities are trivial as compared with the offenses Bayard commits If we recollect aright the democrats used to get mad every time Garfield's secretary signed "Blaine" at the end of his official papers It was charged that the style was European an appropriation of effete monarchies and consequently offensive to Americans It was claimed at the time that Mr Blaine should sign his entire name to public documents like any other true blue bang up American

It would be interesting to know what the sans[illegible] of the high-toned cold blooded [illegible] Bayard Surely they will not condone his aristocratic pride Brewster's frills and Blaine's autographs are mild exhibitions of swell [illegible] and brains when placed side by side with the language of the new secretary His talk of [illegible] of people [illegible] common walk [illegible] individuals whom it is respectful [illegible] to put Jackson and [illegible]

The New York Democracy Complaining

New York Letter to Boston [illegible]

I had a long and interesting discussion with one of the leading democrats in the state He is a merchant of high standing, took a prominent part in last fall's canvass, and was in a position to know the inner history of the democratic side of the campaign He said to me

The whole trouble is that President Cleveland is leaning too far toward the republicans at the expense of his own party These mugwumps know that Cleveland feels under obligations to his republican supporters and ever since March they have been endeavoring to convince the president that they represent the entire republican vote cast in the last presidential election for the democratic ticket Why within a very few days ex Attorney General Francis C Barlow and other high functionaries of the mugwumps have assured President Cleveland that they would continue to support him but accompanied the announcement with the intimation that he must keep to their platform and not appoint politicians to office In other words it amounted to saying we will deliver the same republican vote this year that was polled for you last provided you do as we say

But now look at the other side of the question The republican support which Cleveland received would never have elected him had it not been for the magnificent organization and unprecedented work on our side About the 1st of last September the canvass made by the democratic state committee showed that the republicans would carry this state by at least 40,000 That was the darkest hour of the campaign The task before the democrats was almost hopeless But our leading party men then came forward At great personal sacrifices they supplied the necessary funds They turned in and worked as they never worked before and the result was our success It is not President Cleveland [illegible] indebted to these men as much as he is to the mugwumps

Now what is the result? So far the administration has apparently followed the policy of overlooking the men who bore the brunt of the fight and richly rewarding many who stood aloof During the campaign this kind of business cannot go on without resulting in disaster to the party We cannot elect our candidate for governor without an organization and it is certain that we will have no organization if the administration adopts a policy of proscribing those whose work has in the past and is now necessary to secure democratic success

Two Months—The Result

New York Tribune

The highest compliment that the democrats have ever paid or can pay to the republican party they are paying now in the pretended adoption of republican policies and principles as their own To do this is not easy or pleasant for them Men of any self respect find it unspeakably humiliating to admit that they have been lying [illegible] cowardly [illegible] democrats have [illegible]

[illegible] on pretending that [illegible] assertions about the finances for years past have been as full of untruths as an egg is of meat He has been asserting that there was an enormous surplus which ought to be spent in clearing off debt Mr Hendricks and Mr Randall unblushingly said it was two hundred millions or more Every official statement of Mr Manning, the democratic secretary of the treasury [illegible] that they have been lying The democratic orator and editor persisted [illegible] years in asserting that the republican statements were [illegible] and fraudulent that they were cunningly devised to conceal the truth and rob the [illegible] of [illegible] millions Mr Manning's statements comparing dollar for dollar and cent for cent with those of his predecessors using the very [illegible] admitting [illegible] the [illegible] to prove that these assertions have been simply a pack of falsehoods It is not pleasant to admit all this But the democratic administration is forced to do that or else to let the treasury become bankrupt in the very first year of democratic rule and the latter would be fatal to all chances of keeping office When a democrat [illegible] either his chance of keeping office [illegible] his reputation for honesty and his self respect [illegible]

New York Sun Ind Dem

There can be no question that during the two months he has been in office President Cleveland has moved with great slowness toward the reformation which many expected of him Apart from the appointment of his cabinet he has scarcely made an important change and he has done nothing so far to demonstrate the alleged rottenness of the republican tenure Many of his appointments has [illegible]
